SEWING MACHINE.

We would call attention to the following facts in connection with this Machine which renders it superior to any other in use:
It runs a flat elastic seam which will not rip in wear,
It is entirely noiseless;
A patented device prevents its being turned backward;
The needle cannot be set wrong;
Can be used successfully without other instructions than accompany the Machine;
It received the Gold Medal of the American Institute in 1863. For particulars enquire of

GEORGE H PENDLETON ON CIVIL RIGHTS.—The Democracy of this State are making a fight against the policy of giving civil rights equally to all classes of persons. Will they permit us to commend to their respectful consideration the following letter on this subject from GEORGE H PENDLETON, their late nominee for the Vice Presidency? Will they read and accept it with the perfect trust and unbounded approbation with which they used to receive every utterance that fell from Mr Pendleton's lips? We believe they will not deny that the man who they lately honored so highly, is a good Democrat:

> CINCINNATI, Dec 28, 1865
> NATHANIEL B MEADE, Esq , Winchester Va.—My Dear Sir: Your letter has just come to hand. I have been absent from the city a good deal lately, and this may account for the delay in part—the mails must answer for the rest.
>
> I regret that I have not a compilation of the laws of Indiana and Illinois to send you. I am not familiar with their provisions in relation to negroes resident in those States, but I have an impression that they are more stringent than those of Ohio.
>
> Indeed, in this State, the negro enjoys practically all civil rights. He may acquire and hold property, make contracts, sue and be sued, and give testimony in all courts and in all cases. In some parts of the State, public schools for the education of colored children are established under the authority of law, and are supported by the property levied on the taxes of all the people of the State and appointed pro rata according to the enumeration of white and colored children. The laws which created disabilities on the part of negroes in respect to their civil rights, were repealed in the year 1849 after a contest quite memorable in the history of the State. Their repeal was looked upon as a dangerous innovation upon a just and well-settled policy, and a vote in that direction consigned many a member of the Legislature to the repose of private life. But I am not aware that any evil results justified these apprehensions, or that any effort was ever made to reimpose the disabilities. On the contrary, the new policy, if I may call it so, has been found so consistent with justice to the negroes and [illegible] interests of the whites that [illegible] one—certainly [illegible] would be willing [illegible] abandon it.
>
> Whatever may have been expedient or necessary in a society where the condition [illegible] very [illegible] concern to me that justice and good policy [illegible] ample protection [illegible] erty [illegible] [illegible] which just laws [illegible] person and property [illegible] from [illegible] which the affection [illegible] him [illegible] and family [illegible] bor—the right to [illegible] enforce contracts—[illegible] duty. The society will [illegible] unless the protection [illegible] I believe that it will at [illegible] and good order of society and [illegible] connection of the two races in such [illegible] other.
>
> I notice what you say in reference to the [illegible] to permit negroes to testify [illegible] with the opinion you ex[illegible] persons have convinced [illegible] all persons to testify, leav[illegible] the question of their credibility [illegible] siderable exceptions, has [illegible] it has been attended with good [illegible]
> I am very respectfully, you[illegible]

DEMOCRATIC BEAUTIES.—[illegible] 1st Judicial District, having [illegible] ting Attorney—James R. N[illegible] photographist for putting his [illegible] which had the imprint of an [illegible] the reverse side, among oth[illegible] "What, do you think that I am a d—d [illegible] publican, that you should put such a [illegible] same card with my picture?"

The Democrats of Union county [illegible] ted for State Senator, Jin [illegible] 1865, rushed howling [illegible] flourishing a pistol and [illegible] DAVIS, until captured by [illegible] forced to desist.

The Democrats of Union [illegible] ented for [illegible] who is to [illegible] call, [illegible] [illegible] ble, [illegible] The [illegible] were appointed [illegible] son could [illegible] son's judgment was upset.

JUST LIKE THEM.—[illegible] Mr Lane threw out a challenge [illegible] meet him in this city on the [illegible] political debate. This challenge [illegible] by the Union County Committee, and Mr Lane was assured that he should be gratified in his desire to meet an antagonist. Subsequently, however, the Democracy would consent to no arrangement that was fair, thus monopolizing the whole evening, and this after they had made the challenge referred to. They were willing to magnanimously allow their opponents one speaker, his time to be restricted to one hour, while they claimed the right to have THREE speakers, each to have an hour's time. The Union County Committee declined to accede to this proposition, not willing to be a party in any such unfair arrangement. So the Democracy, headed by the son of our ancient Joseph, and brother of the Confederate "Colonel" had the evening all to themselves. We expect to find no more fairness or honor exhibited by the Oregon Confederates in this canvass than was shown by their brother Democrats of the South during the rebellion.

THE WHITE BLUFFS ROAD.—There is scarcely a day that parties are not leaving here for Montana by the way of White Bluffs and Pend d'Oreille Lake, and the testimony of every one of them is that it is a good road, with plenty of wood water and grass for camping purposes. About two weeks since a party of Californians whom we mentioned as fitting out at the store of the Messrs Baldwin, have been heard from. William Darwine writes from White Bluffs to these gentlemen, as follows: "We left the Dalles on Wednesday and got to the Yakima river on Saturday—Pell's Crossing. The road is good with an abundance of grass. From the Yakima to White Bluffs is about forty miles by the wagon road or upper crossing. Parties coming from the Dalles had better keep this road. All that is wanted is proper guide boards, with the distances distinctly marked on them and no one will have any trouble, as it is a good road for packers, cattle or, in fact any person going to the upper country." This is only one of a number of letters that have been received here from parties who have traveled over the road; and we only mention this to show that men who are entirely disinterested in the matter, say of it. It is, beyond a doubt, not only the best but the shortest route to reach the mines of Montana and Big Bend.

A number of men started out yesterday over this route yesterday for Montana, and to-day a saddle-train of some twenty animals will follow, thus showing that the route is fast becoming known to the public, that no misrepresentations had been made in regard to it. There is another inducement which men bound for the upper country take into consideration and that is the low prices at which horses are sold in this market. A good animal can be purchased here at prices ranging from $25 to $60, and we know that in no place on either side of the mountains can animals be purchased for anything near the same prices they can be bought for here.—Mountaineer.

PROTECTION FOR UTAH.—On the 13th ult General Sherman sent a dispatch to Salt Lake City which runs in this wise:

> "Brigham Young: You are at the head of the Mormon Church, and if any more murders are committed in Utah such as that of Mr Brassfield I shall hold you responsible. To the Gentiles he said: 'You shall be protected and if you have not troops enough now, I will give you all you need.'"

The Statesman of the 7th inst , warmly approves the plan of reconstruction which was lately presented to Congress by the Committee of Fifteen, and exhorts every Union man "to work to elect our whole ticket with a view of having the next Legislature ratify this new plan."

Their Conduct in the Canvass

It is an actual fact, of which the people of Oregon have been made well aware, that the Democratic candidates on the State ticket—at least such of them as have been engaged in the canvass are persons who are egregiously and shamefully wanting in many of the most important qualities that distinguish and characterize gentlemen All who have heard Mr Fay during the canvass will bear witness that in the use of low, profane and scurrilous language he can surpass any person who has ever solicited the suffrages of the people of Oregon for a high office But vile-spoken as he is, Col Kelly can almost equal him Neither of those would be functionaries has much reason to envy the peculiar gifts of the other. Fay probably excels Kelly in the habitual use of vile black guardisms, but we are informed by many persons who have heard them both that on the score of profanity and in the use of language which is positively blasphemous, Kelly is far ahead of Fay We cannot defile our pages with the horrid imprecations which we are told, fall from Col Kelly's lips almost every time he undertakes to make a speech. A favorite reply with him is, "you lie," coupled with expletives and blasphemies which would have shamed the army of Flanders The people are noting the difference between this shameful conduct on the part of the Democratic candidates, and the courteous speech, dignified argument and gentlemanly deportment of the Union nominees.

What is the Civil Rights Bill?

The remnants of the advocates of the system of human slavery, seem to fondly hope that in opposing the Civil Rights Law they have at last found ground on which they can stand In this State they are making their opposition to this law a prominent feature in the present political canvass Hence it is particularly desirable at this time to ascertain clearly what the bill of Civil Rights is

It has been well defined as a law "empowering certain judicial officers of the Federal Government to do justice in cases where the State or local courts refuse or neglect to do it"

Here the objection of its unconstitutionality is urged "It is unconstitutional," as its opposers claim, "for the Federal Government thus to interfere with, or supersede with its own courts the judiciary of a State" To this it may be replied that the officers of the nation do not act unless the officers of the State have refused or failed to do so If the State courts do justice to all classes of population, the Federal courts will have nothing to do This law will interfere in no way with the State courts, and under its provisions the Federal officers are authorized to act only when the courts of a State fail to do justice impartially to all.

We believe that all who now oppose the Civil Rights Law will admit that the Fugitive Slave Law of 1850, which was in force for many years, was [illegible] constitutional. Under this law the agents of the Federal Government were empowered to do the work which State officers and courts by reason of prejudice, or a feeling that slavery was wrong, had neglected, Under the law for the recovery of fugitive slaves, Commissioners were appointed to act, precisely like those constituted by the Civil Rights Law. These Commissioners were authorized to call on the people for aid to enforce the law, and whoever refused assistance was subjected to fine and imprisonment. It was provided also that in cases of necessity the military power of the Federal Government might be called in to assist the Federal agents, In many instances this was done Military force, as all know, was employed in Boston to recover the fugitive Burns,

The same security is now asked for liberty which was then required for slavery. By the same process which was then used to protect the slaveholder in his title and his slave, it is now intended to protect the freedman in his liberty This liberty is guaranteed to him by the last constitutional amendment, and he must be protected in it But the Civil Rights Law, though enacted with a view to securing justice to the blacks, may apply to the white people as well Any class of persons who cannot obtain justice in the courts of a State may resort to the means of redress which this law affords The Civil Rights Law is not special or class legislation, for as we have seen, it may apply to all orders or classes of persons

To prove the constitutionality of the Fugitive Slave Law, many elaborate arguments have been framed by the very persons who are now vehemently denouncing the Civil Rights Law These persons thus contradict themselves and attempt, unconsciously, perhaps, to overthrow all their former reasoning Their inconsistency is not surprising, it is what we expect to see in those who are wedded to the ideas which have grown out of the system of human slavery

The Civil Rights Law, it will be observed, is operative in all the States It is not confined to the South In the North, the State courts may, and no doubt will, do what is necessary for the ends of justice so that the Federal agents will rarely or never be called upon It may hereafter be so in the South While the Fugitive Slave Law was in force, no Commissioners were appointed in the Southern States because the State Courts did their duty If justice can be effectually done in the South without the interposition of the Federal authority, Commissioners will not now be appointed there.

Let justice be done, and no action under the Civil Rights Law by the agents of the General Government will ever be heard of

'Friends of the Soldier'

Soldiers, your true friends, have been and now are in the Democratic party —M. H Abbott, May 12, 1866

So far then as this question of men is concerned, Mr Lincoln may rely exclusively upon the fanatics of the North to RAISE AND ARM AND EQUIP THEM We have no doubt there are fanatics and fools and vagabonds in the North who in spite of collected together make a good sized army in point of numbers —M H Abbott in the [illegible] County Democrat April 1863.

A further proof of the assertion that the "true friends of the soldier have been, and are now in the Democratic party" is found in the fact that M H Abbott on the 7th of May 1863 called these defenders of the country whom he now loves so well "COTTON THIEVES AND NIGGER STEALERS" Surely M H Abbott, and the party he speaks for have established their title to the name of "the true friends of the soldier!"

Business in New York.

CHICAGO May 8—Business in New York has been somewhat restricted by the excitement over the Broker's Tax bill, but a rather better feeling prevails in [illegible] for the bill that it will be declared to be unconstitutional The bank statement shows an increase of loans to nearly nine million dollars of deposits $7,000 000 of specie $26 00 000 Money continues plenty and with nominal demand There has been a falling off in the demand for all textile fabrics both staple and fancy, and the price of domestic cottons have again declined from one to one and a half cents and are still unsettled and irregular No merchant manufacturer or importer has been disappointed with regard to trade and prices this spring consequently but few are willing to make ventures and many are anxious to force goods to a sale even at a loss in order to meet outstanding debts; yet there is a continuation of heavy imports, though probably one-half the goods imported this season will result in a loss of twenty per cent The New York price current of May 5th quotes a fair demand for hides and hops prices tend upwards There is more demand for fine domestic wool which brings 50 @55c a advance above the recent extremely low prices Among sales of the week were 50 000 lbs California at 25c @ [illegible] Candles are firm at 25c Total receipts of tea since the 1st of January 20 000 000 lbs to which may be added 9 000 000 on land and 6,277 251 lbs known to be en route [illegible] compared with the same period last season the apparent excess of direct import is 16,000 000 lbs But it should be remembered that shipments came later last season and the present excess must diminish as the season wears on An active demand for consumption has sprung up since the auction sales low prices inducing buyers to come forward The decline established by auction sales is fully 10c @ 15c ₵ lb in gold

Foreign News

FARTHER POINT May 3—The steamer Persian has arrived with dates to April 27th

LONDON April 27—Consols closed at 86¾ for money five twenties 70¼ The weekly returns of the Bank of England shows a decrease of [illegible] million of £3 000 [illegible]

The City of Washington overdue has not arrived at Liverpool The U S Steamer Kearsarge was at Lisbon from Sierra Leone. Nineteen of the crew were attacked with yellow fever on the passage and fourteen died The Kearsarge was kept in strict quarantine

Political interest centers in the fate of the Reform bill A vote was expected on the 28th Owing to a defection in the liberal ranks from the opposition

Congressional

WASHINGTON May "—In the House Julian of Indiana offered a resolution which was adopted instructing the judiciary committee to inquire into the expediency of prohibiting the territories from denying the negro suffrage and providing that none be admitted unless negro suffrage be granted.

Lawrence, of Pennsylvania, reported a bill which passed changing the place of holding the United States Court in Virginia, from Norfolk to Richmond

The revenue bill provides for a special commissioner of revenue, at a salary of $4 000 to examine the workings of the law and report from time to time what changes may be necessary

Morrill of Vermont in a speech explaining the tax bill estimated that it would produce $250 000 000 for the next year against $300 000,000 for the current year War prices no longer rule, and manufactures must be further reduced in value Manufactures therefore, must be far less productive for the year ending June 10th, 1867, than heretofore and as in the season of falling prices, it is not the gains but the losses that must be calculated The tax on income etc, cannot be expected to yield former results from foreign importation at the maintained on the present scale The bill makes compensation for the loss by an increase tax on cotton which is expected to produce $24 000 000 an increase of $24 000 000 on that article alone The bill exempts many articles and largely reduces the tax on others with a view to lessening family expenditures It is also proposed to relieve freights partly as the most indispensable tax we have had checking commerce and adding to prices It will be seen that these are utterly abandoned as are all taxes on articles in schedule A except gold and silver plate etc The tax upon all other articles therein amounting to less than the cost of collection while it provided for domiciliary visits, which are always obnoxious It is not proposed to change the tax on malt liquors It is thought that the high rate is sufficient to test its real value for revenue purposes and there is no doubt of its value as a mode of repression in the consumption of intoxicating beverages for large revenue purposes The rate of two dollars per gallon on whisky although the time which has elapsed since its adoption is too brief to definitely settle the question seems to prove unsatisfactory It is questionable whether the recommendation of one dollar per gallon would not benefit the revenue as well as the honest dealer The tobacco-growing and manufacturing interest, it is true has been and is now greatly depressed but not so much on account of the large influx of untaxed tobacco which came into market on the cessation of the war It may be added that our tariff upon foreign tobacco is much too low

WASHINGTON, May 8—The Senate passed the House resolution congratulating the Emperor of Russia on his escape from assassination

Mr Chandler, from the committee on commerce reported a joint resolution instructing the Secretaries of War, the Navy, and the Treasury to adopt an efficient system of quarantine against the cholera, and enforce sanitary measures,

Mr Henderson asked Mr Trumbull to withdraw his amendment to the post office bill relative to appointments and removals so that it might be made independent Its said no such bill could ever pass Mr Morrill moved to strike out the last clause requiring the cause of removal during Congressional recess to be reported to the Senate at the next session which was carried—ayes 21, noes 16 Mr Trumbull offered the following substitute: That no person exercising or performing the duties of an office which by law is required to be filled by the advice and consent of the Senate shall before confirmation receive compensation for his services unless commissioned by the President to fill a vacancy occasioned by— [The line here parted]

BY STATE TELEGRAPH

CORVALLIS May 12—The following are the nominations made by the Union County Convention of Benton county to-day State Senator, J R Bayley Representatives, James Chigley? [illegible] A Chenoweth Judge T B Odeneal, Sheriff J Bronson Clerk B W Wilson Treasurer G B Waters

Governor Gibbs and Cols of Hawl [illegible] addressed a large crowd of citizens and were enthusiastically received

Would Admit Rebels

In his speech on Thursday evening Fay said

The abolitionists are howling against the admission of bloody handed rebels into Congress Suppose their hands ARE bloody if they are sent there by their respective States, WHAT OF IT! Much every way Mr Fay the people are not yet ready for those bloody handed rebels to make laws for them and for the country upon which they brought so great a burden of woe

The Copperheads sneaked around at home or off to Canada during the rebellion wherever they were, placing obstructions in the way of the victory which we finally achieved and now they want to claim the honor of it They talk a great deal in a self glorifying manner about the victory we have won

They are just like the man who ran under the bed while his wife fought with and killed the bear when the aggressive beast lay dead on the ground the valiant warrer half came out and commenced hurrahing at a tremendous rate gobbling up the victory with "Didn't we whip the beast beautifully"

In 1863 M H Abbott now of the Oregon Herald warmly endorsed Vallandigham although he (Vallandigham) had said in Congress

And now sir can this war continue? Where can you get the money to carry it on? Where the men? Will men enlist now at any price? No sir It is easier to die at home!

Thus M H Abbott, of the Oregon Herald by endorsing Vallandigham) in 1863 endorsed the sentiment that it would be better to RESIST THE GOVERNMENT and die at home THAN TO ENLIST OR SUBMIT TO CONSCRIPTION FOR THE SAKE OF THE UNION Here's loyalty for you!

EDITOR OREGONIAN —The candidates for Congress Mallory and Fay with young Lane [illegible] candidate for Secretary of State spoke in [illegible] village to-day Mallory's speech [illegible] honest statement of our national issues and created a profound impression on the [illegible] larger concourse [illegible] Union [illegible] were present to hear Fay's harangue [illegible] [illegible] he was [illegible] of it and would not [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] last six years of [illegible] [illegible] may be he has reason to be proud for if he had been more or less than [illegible] unscrupulous member of the Jones family of traitors he could never have arrived at the contemptible distinction of being their candidate for representative Several sneers at the Internal revenue collectors as he politely termed them a repetition of Kelly's squirt at repeal [illegible] endorsed by himself and an abundance of [illegible] slang and not [illegible] spoak hardly very highly seasoned with misstatements constituted his arguments Lane said enigmatically that the northern fanatics had [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] them beware that their own [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] not feel the stroke

LOVE FOR THE SOLDIERS —What a gushing fountain of gratitude the Democracy have lately discovered in their tender bosoms for the gallant boys in blue If their candidate for Congress were not utterly shameless his feet would blister to stand upon a platform that expresses any sense of gratitude to our soldiers! In a public speech in this town his organ and his party friends to the contrary notwithstanding Jas D Fay denounced the soldiers of the Republic as "hell hounds" and asserted that Col Turchin turned loose three hundred of his men on a girls boarding school at Athens Georgia that negroes and white soldiers perpetrated by authority the most horrible crimes on Island No 10 and when reminded that Col Turchin had been tried and found innocent of any conduct unbecoming a true soldier and had been promoted to the rank of Brigadier General the little minded demagogue was not manly enough to acknowledge it but said with a sneer, that Lincoln the old scoundrel rewarded Turchin for his infamy With the knowledge that this language was then recorded against him he should have blushed scarlet when he endorsed a platform thanking those who bore the brunt of the battle If Fay is honest this language expressed the full measure of his admiration for "the hirelings of a tyrant" and it is a serious matter of doubt if Fay loves a soldier as much as he professes now One thing is not doubtful—that the soldiers will remember him on election day and repay his admiration in kind —Sentinel

In his speech at Chapin's Hall on Wednesday night J D Fay candidate for Congress insisted that the Southern States were not at any time nor are not now out of the Union Listen to him in the Legislature at the Special Session, while making a speech in opposition to the adoption of the amendment to the Constitution abolishing slavery in the United States

But sir if the House will permit me I will glance at the [illegible] [illegible] argument when Congress passed that Constitutional amendment about a number of those States were out of the Union and unknown to our laws.

This is what he believed then and still believes it, but is not honest enough to acknowledge it —Mountaineer

Fay said in his speech here that the Dalles would not have a Branch Mint until he went to Congress —Mountaineer

If that be true we tender our joint lamentations with the people of the Dalles upon the eternal fading out of their gorgeous dreams of a mint Alas that so brief a sentence should snuff out the hopes of long years

REMEMBER IF YOU HAVE A COLD OR COUGH THAT HALL'S PULMONARY BALSAM will cure you quicker than any other known remedy can do; the genuine is put up in 50 cent bottles only

"THOSE PICTURES"— Exactly they were taken at Ellsworth & Cardwell's Gallery 89 First Street and I have never had as good ones before Such was the remark of a gentleman lately from New York who is thoroughly posted on all matters of art Children should come in the morning Pictures taken as well in cloudy as clear weather

HORSE THIEVES.—Marshal Keeler, of Dalles city, arrived here on Saturday night en route for Salem, with the horses recently stolen from Mr. A. Bush and Mr. Boon, Marion county, and one of the thieves, Harry Hoonan, alias Gregory and alias Charles Coleman. The horses and thieves were captured at Wild-Horse Creek, in Umatilla county, after a chase of several days. Two men were taken with the horses, but one of them—who, very probably, was innocent—was discharged, upon examination at Umatilla. At the time of the arrest Hoonan (Gregory, or Coleman) was armed "to the teeth," but he was so completely surprised that Marshal Keeler "persuaded" him to surrender without much fuss. He was then searched, and on his person was found all the paraphernalia of a regular horse thief, consisting of ... to pay bills and "boot" with, dyes to color the hair of an animal, poison for dogs, or men perhaps, and ... of having money. All these appendages and trappings were taken possession of by the Marshal. The horses and thief will be taken to Salem to-day. In such cases as this the indefatigable officer should be most handsomely rewarded. It not unfrequently happens that an officer in the discharge of his duty, expends more ready money than is returned to him for his services. A case in point will serve to show the working of this plan. Recently Mr Keeler himself was obliged to go to Umatilla to arrest an offender. He did so, and returned him to the Dalles, at an expense of $30 passage money, besides bills amounting to $10 more. It happened to be one of those cases in which something about the papers was defective, and the defendant was discharged. Mr Keeler received but one dollar and a third ($1 33⅓) for his services, and thus was loser to the amount of $44 67. An efficient officer will sometimes start after a horse thief with the very best intentions. If he gets the thief, all well, he can demand his mileage; but on the contrary, if he loses track of the thief, and fails to catch him, he must pocket his own loss. In such cases a suitable reward should be honestly paid him for his labor and trouble. That there has existed in that region of country, for a long time an organized band of horse thieves, there is no possibility of a doubt. On the night of March 28th, a fine span of horses were taken from the premises of Mr. Wm. Raymond, of Washington county. After a vigorous search for the thief the chase was given up, and a few days ago one of the horses was found with its throat cut, and three or four pistol balls in its head, about a quarter of a mile from the farm. It had undoubtedly been killed purposely by the thief, who probably feared to attempt taking away both animals. One day last week another horse was stolen at [illegible]. On the 9th the thief was seen at Wisconsin with the horse, and he possibly reached Portland in time to take the steamer at 5 o'clock A. M. on the 10th for the Dalles, and has not since been heard of. These thieves are generally pretty shrewd men. The one now in custody of Marshal Keeler was sharp enough to visit the express office at the Dalles, and intercept a letter giving information concerning the horses he had stolen, the envelope of which latter was found in his [illegible] filled with bullets, when he was arrested. Only for this circumstance, he never would have been able to get so far from the Dalles as he did.

EXPORTS.—At the present time the exports of Oregon are not large, owing to the lack of inquiry for the articles of grain, flour, etc., and yet the freight lists of steamers cleared from this port to San Francisco show a gratifying increase in the number and quantity of materials produced for export. The Oriflamme on Saturday evening carried away 49 barrels of liquor, 33 rolls leather, and 8 [illegible] 71 cases of merchandise, manufactured in this city, in addition to 60 gunnies of bacon, 250 half barrels of apples, and 10 half barrels of peaches, in return for like articles imported a few months since. 1,100 boxes of Apples, 103 packages of eggs, 67 bales of wool, 4 barrels of cider, 58 hides, 5 cases of furs and 3 cases of coffee, made up the balance of her cargo. The cargo of the Montana, which left an hour later, consisted in part of 20 cases of [illegible], 15 of varnish, 20 barrels of pitch, and 95 barrels (or shooks) from the factories in this city. The first heavy shipment to California from the crop of 1866, was made by this steamer and comprised 200 quarter-sacks. The remainder of the cargo of the Montana was as follows. 1,300 boxes fruit, 34 packages eggs, 319 hides, 21 packages merchandise, 14 bales wool, 20 kegs dried fruit, 19 gunnies bacon, 6 rolls leather, 7 packages furniture, 120 barrels cement—returned to parties in San Francisco—and 3 cords of cottonwood, for manufacturing purposes in California. The Montana had 103 passengers.

INFLUENCE OF FLOWERS.—During the raid of Quantrell in Kansas, and the sacking and ravaging of Lawrence, the gang came to the residence of Mr. Ford, whose house was embowered with flowers. The soldiers appealed to be [illegible] to spare the place, "as it was too pretty to burn." He assented, and the house was spared, almost the only building left. Mr. Ford says now he shall cultivate flowers as long as he remembers the rebellion. The [illegible] of a few flowers touched the hearts of men whom misery or suffering, in the midst of which they were [illegible], could touch, and saved from destruction the [illegible] offered to. Who does not love flowers, and who [illegible] even a little space to them? They refine, [illegible] elevate.

A WALKER.—The Indianapolis Gazette notices the arrival in that city of a most remarkable walker by the name of [illegible] Shaffer, a German, whose peregrinations have extended all over Europe, and the greater part of [illegible] Africa, and is now on his way to the Pacific via Salt Lake, and thence to Japan and China. He [illegible] the tour of the world on foot. Mr. Shaffer is about thirty, and is far below the common stature, being only about four feet six inches in height, owing to a disease or deformity of the spine. He is said to be very intelligent and converses freely in several different languages.

TREASURE SHIPMENT.—The steamship Orizaba, Capt. Conner, which left this port at 7 o'clock on Saturday evening, carried $183,000 treasure, as appeared by the manifest, shipped by parties as follows:

Wells, Fargo & Co	$117,000
Ladd & Tilton	55,000
Griffith Bros	11,00[illegible]
Total	$183,000

PICTURES AT RAFFLE.—Two famous pictures, "Nelson on board the St Joseph" and the "Meeting of Wellington and Blucher,"—of a fine order of engraving, were left at the auction and commission store of Oscar Kilbourne, Esq., recently to be sold, but failing to realize the limit upon them, it has been decided to place them at the Merchant's Exchange for raffle. The pictures are four and a-half by three feet in size, and cost originally $80 each. They are the only prints of the plate in Oregon, and we understand they will be disposed of at $100 for the two. Call and see the pictures.

THE PIC-NIC EXCURSION.—The Pic-nic excursion to Ross Island on Saturday last, by the Good Templars was decidedly a success. The arrangements at the grounds—which were splendid—showed that the Committee had not forgotten anything that could conduce to the comfort and amusement of those in attendance. The day was lovely, and the collations spread upon the green sward and under the leafy boughs of the great old trees, were enjoyed by appreciative appetites. The usual sports of such a day were indulged in with the utmost satisfaction.

THE UNION CLUB.—Let everybody attend the meeting which is advertised to be held at the old Eureka Theater to-night for the purpose of forming a Union Club. The time which intervenes between now and the day of election is short, and the Unionists of Portland must work in earnest to roll up their usual splendid majority for the party which has saved the nation. Once more, friends, you are called upon! Respond as becomes men who appreciate the magnitude of the issue which is at stake!

NITRO-GLYCERINE.—In spite of all the objections to the explosive nature of nitro-glycerine, it may yet come into use as a powerful agent for blasting purposes. Mr. P. Parkinson, of San Francisco, recently asked permission of the Board of Supervisors to use nitro-glycerine in the removal of certain rocks which obstruct that harbor. The petitioner offers the argument that, in case of an explosion, no damage to life can occur beyond one hundred and fifty feet.

GONE DOWN.—Margaret Davis, who has run through a course of dissipation since her arrival in Portland, left by the steamer Orizaba on Saturday last, to embrace her first love—California. She had been on a spree for two days, and was taken into custody by officer Ball, and committed from the Recorder's Court a sufficient length of time to barely allow her a chance to get on board the steamer after her release.

ANXIOUS TO GO TO JAIL.—John Turner was arrested by officer Brennan and appeared on Saturday before Recorder Hoffman to answer on a charge of drunkenness. He was very anxious to go to jail for about two days, having sprained his ankle so as not to be able to work, and the judge deeming a sentence, under the circumstances, no punishment, ordered his discharge.

FIRE.—A very bright light, a little north of an easterly course, was watched with considerable interest by parties in this city on Saturday night. There can be no doubt but that it was a large fire, but we had not the means of ascertaining the locality.

MEETING TO-NIGHT.—Notice appears in another column this morning for a meeting to-night of Union men, at the Eking Fun Hall, formerly the Eureka Theatre—for the purpose of organizing a Union Club. Let there be a good attendance.

SUNDAY AMUSEMENTS.—The usual number of persons were out riding yesterday, but we hear of a less number being arrested for violation of city ordinance. Officer Ward took one fast rider under his protection.

A GOOD BEGINNING.—The contractors on First street have at last made a good beginning. People will be thankful if they do as well in future. The paving will commence to-day.

CHINESE.—The moon eyed gentry are about as thick as [illegible] in Portland now-a-days, and still they come by every [illegible]. Last week two hundred Chinamen were landed in the city.

RAIN.—A very welcome shower of rain fell in the [illegible] of Portland yesterday morning before daylight which greatly cooled the atmosphere and revived vegetation.

FOR PUMPHREY'S LANDING.—The O. S. N. Company's steamer Rescue, Capt. Hiams, will to-day make an effort to reach Pumphrey's landing, on the Cowlitz river.

ENAMEL CARD PICTURES.—Buchtel advertises that he is taking the enamel card pictures.

Most Beautiful Photographic Work is now being done at Buchtel's Premium Gallery. The ENAMELED CARD PICTURES—attracting so much attention in other sections—is being taken at the above gallery, the only rooms in the State where it may be had. Buchtel is the pioneer photographer and ambrotyper, and introduces all the new styles in his line in the State of Oregon, taking the first ambrotype, first photograph and first premiums. Rooms on Front street, corner of Morrison.

Meeting at East Portland on Saturday Evening.

The meeting was called to order at eight o'clock. [illegible] A. M. Loryea was elected Chairman by the Union voters and Col. White by the Democratic voters. Hon. J. N. Dolph opened in an effective speech of one hour's length in which he exhibited the hydra-headed monster of treason that had been nourished and continued in existence by the Democratic party. He showed the importance of continuing the reins of the Government in the hands of those who had preserved it. Hon. L. F. Grover followed by opening with an eulogy on Alex. H. Stephens, and proceeded with a fine dissertation in laudation of the Anglo-Saxon race, drew the conclusion that when differences of opinion arose amongst that race there was likely to be bloodshed, and traced the late war as a natural result of that warlike proclivity, passed to the consideration of the Civil Rights bill, appealing to a lengthy series of misrepresentations of its provisions and effects, assuming ignorance in his audience, attempted to show that giving the negro the right to make contracts, compelled every one to contract with him as he should desire, and brought him effectually on a social level with the white man, regretted his want of time to discuss the propriety of taxing United States Bonds and apologized for being a candidate for State Senator after having been a member of Congress.

Mr. Upton next took the stand. He proceeded to show that the issues in this canvass are sought to be avoided by the Democratic party. The real issue was whether the government should be hereafter administered by those who have sought to defend it, or those who would consent to its destruction. He proved the Democratic party of the present day, was that wing of the old Democratic party that was in the minority and bolted at Charleston in 1860, though there might be accessions to it, the mass of the party during the war favored secession and advocated a dissolution of the Union, while the Douglas wing who were really entitled to be called the Democratic party had stood by the Government and now constituted a part of the Union party. He showed the efforts of the Democracy to ignore the war and its consequences and the issues settled by it and the absurdity of their claiming to be a Union party while relying on secessionists and sympathizers for votes, and with candidates whose disunion record has been read by the whole people. He alluded in a telling manner to Mr. Fay's statement "that if a majority of the people of a State were traitors, they would naturally elect a traitor to represent them in Congress, and that Congress had no right to deny the State representation even though it might be of that kind," reviewed the Civil Rights Bill, giving a fair exposition of its provisions and exhibiting the sophistry and misrepresentations that the Democracy daily apply to it, paid a deserved tribute to the men who, in the early and gloomy days of the rebellion adhered to principles and took the field for their country's preservation, and showed the absurdity of entrusting reconstruction to those who attempted to pull down the edifice. Being requested to give his views on the propriety of taxing United States bonds, he said the bonds were issued by the Government while struggling for its existence, and for the preservation of the principles of a Government by constitutional majorities, they were a necessary consequence of the rebellion and their issue in some form was an indispensable necessity. The policy of exempting them from State taxation, was equivalent to an addition on the rate of interest to the amount of the local tax. Had the Government added to the interest this amount it would have been the same to the bondholder, since whatever he paid in taxes he would receive in interest. The object of exempting them from local taxation was to keep the bonds in the United States. Our bonds being worth in the U. S. just the amount of our local taxes, more than those that went to Europe will remain at home, and the annual interest, instead of being sent semi-annually to Europe, must be distributed here among our people.

Mr. Kriskadden followed in a speech of half an hour on the usual topics of the recent speakers. He went in for the great Democratic party and was opposed to amending the Constitution.

Messrs. Mallory and Fay were each introduced in response to calls and received with cheers, but owing to the lateness of the hour, declined to detain the audience.

The meeting was a decided success, some three hundred voters being present, and those who are posted, confidently assured us that East Portland precinct would roll up fifty majority for the Union ticket.

When Mr. Fay was called, he proposed three cheers for the Constitution and for the American flag, with every star on it. Thereupon, the Union Chairman of the meeting proposed as an amendment—which took the wind out of the Democratic sails—"three cheers for the soldiers of the army and navy, who fought to have every one of those stars remain." The Democrats cheered feebly. M. A.

Washington Territory Items

We gather the following items from the Vancouver Register of the 12th.

From Mr. S. D. Maxon we learn that another lodge of gold and silver quartz has been struck a mile or more northeast of Vancouver lodge, very much resembling the others, but giving probably a more favorable prospect. From other gentlemen who have prospected in other places, and somewhat further into the mountains, we learn that the same indications are found in several other places giving good evidence that summer will develope a large and rich district for mining. The confidence of holders increases, and they feel satisfied of a permanently rich thing.

Mr. James H. Bolton has shown us a specimen of whitish clay, taken from a bank near his residence, some twelve miles above this place, which he and others judge will prove valuable for the manufacture of earthenware; it is of a whitish color, and such fine grain and so smooth that it makes one's fingers feel, on rubbing it between them, much as if they had been dipped in oil.

The V. H. B. Society hold their regular monthly meetings on the first Thursday of each month. The following gentlemen are officers for the ensuing year: President, John Fiddings, Vice President, Edward O'Keane, Recording Secretary, John O'Keane. Corresponding Secretary, John T. Marony; Treasurer, David Wall.

Company "B," 14th Infantry, Captain Henton commanding, left this place on Friday for Boise. A company of cavalry also left on the same day for service in the upper country.

We have seen letters from above which say that the Union ticket will be elected in every county east of us. It is fair to presume that the ticket will go west of the mountains with about 500 majority.—Mountaineer.

43 SETS BLACKSMITH TOOLS. For sale by E. J. NORTHRUP & CO.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated

PLANTATION BITTERS,

Which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities, and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure, and must supercede all other tonics where a healthy, gentle stimulant is required.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.

They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, wintergreen, sassafras, roots and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix rum. For particulars, see circulars and testimonials around each bottle.

Beware of impostors. Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U. S. Stamp unmutilated over the cork, with plantation scene, and our signature on a fine steel plate side label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in bulk, is an impostor. Any person imitating this bottle, or selling any other material therein, whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the U. S. Law, and will be so prosecuted by us. We already have our eye on several parties re-filling our bottles, &c., who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants, &c., is incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.

CHARTRES COFFEE!

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.

STEAM POWER, NOS. 630 AND 632 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only aids to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

M. HOWARD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE,

315 Montgomery St., San Francisco.

THE ABOVE PREPARATION, WHICH HAS BEEN recently discovered and patented, is purely a Vegetable Extract.

The undersigned are fully aware of the many unsatisfactory and useless preparations for restoring hair that have been introduced to the public, and how little confidence is to be placed in any pretensions to restoring the hair to bald heads, but having tried MR. HOWARD'S PREPARATION, we are able to state that it not only prevents the hair from falling out, but absolutely reproduces it, and that we now have good suits of hair growing where we were entirely bald. Therefore, as a matter of justice to Mr. Howard, and of consolation to bald heads, we tender him this testimonial. Mr. H. keeps the article for sale in bottles with directions for its use, or applies it himself, as may be desired.

Montana News.

We condense as follows from the Montana Post of April 21st:

Last Monday, a shooting affair occurred at Elk creek, between a man named Kelly, late of Helena, and a man named Loan, resulting in the death of the former. Loan attempted to escape, but was arrested and hanged by the citizens. It seems that Loan had jumped Kelly's claim, and attempted to eject him from the same, when angry words ensued, and the men drew their weapons and began firing. This is the first affair of the kind at the new mines.

The bodies of two men, supposed to be John Hanna and a man named Monroe, were recently found in the Flint Creek Hills, where they had frozen to death. Hanna lived at Silver Bow, during last winter, and was originally from California.

The enormous sum of thirty thousand dollars was taken from a claim in McClellan Gulch, just lately, in eleven days, with five hands.

The new mines are proving of undoubted richness and great extent, at least two hundred miles of placer diggings having been found the past winter.

Lincoln, Keep Cool, Reed's, California, Washington, Jefferson, Snowshoe, Ophir, Flint creek, and all the others, are developing great riches.

Deer Lodge Valley is almost entirely claimed. Ranches are held at high figures, and sell frequently at high prices. An improved ranch, near Deer Lodge City, was sold a short time since for $5,000 in currency.

The stampede increases. Everybody said he had found a "big thing."

NEW DISCOVERY.

We learn from a reliable source that a dry gulch has just been discovered between Elven's and Harris' gulches, which bids fair to be rich. It was discovered by Mr. Hutfilker, of Bagled, in Elven's gulch. The gold is coarse, weighing from fifty cents to $2 00 to the piece. The first day Mr. H. panned out $16. Quite an excitement exists in that vicinity. It is proposed to extend the Ramshorn ditch, so as to bring water into the gulch, and this will be done as soon as the frost gets out of the ground sufficiently.

FREIGHTING.

Philip Berliner's train of wagons rolled out last week for Salt Lake City; Philip Link's train followed suit; Jeffrey's and Watkin's train of twelve wagons also headed towards the City of Waters, and Grim's wagons loaded on Tuesday last for the new diggings at Bear Gulch. First on the list of spring arrivals came a train of some ten or twelve wagons from Salt Lake, owned by divers and sundry proprietors, and laden with produce; they arrived safe and sound at the end of last week. Here we beg respectfully to terminate our chronicle, for it would shortly take one side of the Post to keep track of the motley crowd now thronging like the waves of a flood tide, by every pass and canyon, to Montana, the genuine Ophir of the 19th century.

MAIL CONTRACTS.

A dispatch received last night at the office of Oliver & Co. of this city, announces that that pioneer staging firm had received a contract for the carriage of the mail from Bridger to Hell's Gate, via Virginia City, Silver Bow and Deer Lodge. Their other contract is from Virginia City to Helena. We sincerely wish them success. The splendid time made last summer has never been equaled in the West.

BLACKFOOT.

A letter from Blackfoot to the Post says:

We are just now in a transition state—passing from the dormant to the active—from the tediousness of a "hold up" existence, rendered necessary by a long and severe winter, to the hum and bustle of business; and the change is hailed with no small degree of pleasure. Owing to the depth of frost in the ground, probably two or three weeks will elapse ere mining in full force is commenced; but every one appears to be actively making preparations for as early a start as possible; and already a few of the more favorably located claims have commenced washing, and invariably with results highly satisfactory. Ophir creek will be worked for miles above and below town, and the creek undoubtedly contains many rich claims. The mines on Carpenter's bar and Prairie gulch are considered by many to be the best in the vicinity of this place; and extensive preparations are being made by the holders for the most advantageous working of their claims. I have no doubt but a large yield of gold will be the result of their energy. Besides, there are many smaller gulches and bars that will pay well. Several new discoveries, both east and west of Blackfoot, have been made during the winter, and between Snowshoe and Little Blackfoot creeks, two new districts have been found. A ditch has been surveyed, and, I understand, will be prosecuted to completion as early as possible, to convey the water from the latter sufficiently high to cover the new diggings. There is a large scope of country between these two streams that prospects well, and only remains untenanted from the want of water to work the ground.

From No. 8, below discovery, on McClellan gulch, $12,584 were taken last week, the result of five day's run with one string of sluices. I am also informed that $1,741 was cleaned up from a single day's run on the same claim, since. This, considering the disadvantages of working at this season of the year, is pretty good, even for Montana.

Many are leaving Elk creek. The prevailing opinion appears to be that, while there are probably some good claims there, nothing has been found to warrant the excitement which has caused so many to rush to that locality.

The town of Blackfoot is just now en dishabille—changing her sombre and homely winter garb for a light and airy summer dress, and what with her spare fronts, corniced, painted and highly ornamented, she presents an appearance quite hoydenish. Besides, too, is now brisk; stranger faces predominate; pack trains come and go; merchandise (particularly whisky) has a downward tendency, and the people are happy. On Carpenter's gulch, a town is springing up which bids fair to do a lively trade during the mining season. I believe it is not named yet, but will probably have "city" affixed to whatever name it may wear. It is generally thought that Blackfoot will be one of the best business localities on this side of the mountains; and from the extent and wealth of the placers in its vicinity I do not see why it should not be. The size and duration of a town like this is measured and governed by its surrounding mineral wealth, and I do not believe the Territory has a more favorable locality in that respect.

SUICIDE.

A person named William Tiede, a native of Denmark, committed suicide on the 6th ult., by shooting himself in the mouth with a revolver.

Idaho News.

The Statesman of May 5th has the following:

A DANGEROUS NEIGHBORHOOD.

[illegible] guld's creek is getting a bad reputation [illegible] a dangerous place for either stock or whisky [illegible] around loose. Last February Kaid's pets [illegible] about every hoof in the neighborhood across the [illegible] and now just as we were flattering ourselves that the road between here and Owyhee was a safe one, news [illegible] that a [illegible] who built his camp fire almost [illegible] Babington's, had nothing but his camp fires and [illegible] next morning. Mr. Alex Weir, with a train of [illegible] camped in a gulch three-fourths of a [illegible] side of Babington's, on the evening of May first. [illegible] toll gate a teamster was camped [illegible] two teams of horses. Early the next morning it was [illegible] that the pack train and teams had joined in making a broad trail, pursuing in the same general direction as that taken by Hill Fwbey's horses last February. It was supposed from the sign that about fifteen rascals—red or white—were very close to the stock when they started on their pilgrimage. By eight o'clock in the morning about twenty men, well mounted and armed, had started in pursuit, of whom we hope to have good news before the next issue.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

We learn by Idaho stage last night, that a man by the name of Austin came to his death yesterday at Sampson's mill, by falling upon the saw. The man was frightfully mangled, his head and neck being split open down to the shoulders by the saw.

BUSINESS MATTERS.

There is no other way to describe the state of commercial affairs but to say that business is extremely dull. The last week has been unusually so. Farmers and miners are all at work, taking out gold or putting in crops, so there is little to make a lively trade. Freight is arriving in larger quantities, and trains are continually passing bound for Montana. Within the last ten days the Montana travel has taken the Camas Prairie road, the snow having nearly disappeared from it. Fourteen teams started that way last week, and more have followed since. The twelve per cent. ten year bonds of the funded Territorial debt are selling for 33¼ cents.

IDAHO CITY NEWS.

A letter from Idaho City, of May 1st, says: Hogem, alias Pioneer, is improving, and every indication of good times close at hand. I found P. McFarland, W. Blacklo, H. Hanbrick, F. Thibodo, B. Hanbrick, Danskin & Bro., W. Brant, J. M. Canady and Dr. Dealman doing the business in this camp. The Big Muddy mines are yielding largely. I also met Mat Loony. Mat is hale and hearty, and enjoying the climate of Boise hugely.

Placerville is looking up a little and will soon be a lively camp again. The International is the hotel for this place. Ben Anderson, Mr. Reynolds and Dr. Ralston are rushing things all they can to keep up times and the credit of the camp.

Idaho City is quite lively. The mines are yielding largely and everybody feels gay.

McDonald is back again, and says he could not be sold to California for $10,000, or be passed off for Wells. The officer has not yet arrived, and the general supposition is that he is retained for the prisoner.

M. Dunn was found guilty of murder in the first degree for the killing of McKay.

ARRIVAL OF MILITARY OFFICERS.

The following officers of the regular army arrived at Fort Boise last Tuesday: Col. Blake, 1st Cavalry; Col. Lovell, 14th Infantry; Brevet Lieut. Col. O'Beirne, Capt. 14th Infantry; Brevet Lieut. Col. Baker, Capt. 1st Cavalry; Brevet Lieut. Col. Vincent, 1st Lieut. 2d Artillery; Capt. Weeks, A. Q. M., U. S. A.; Brevet Lieut. Col. Hall, 2d Artillery, and Capt. W. B. Hughes, U. S. A.

SOMETHING NEW AND NOVEL.—A PATENT APPLIED FOR.—Mr. HENDEE has invented an article by which he can take any number of Head Pictures on the same plate without the subject getting up from the chair, and get different positions if the infant, all sizes of heads, can put a half dozen heads in the space of a half dollar; can put a whole family of heads on a common sized card, and will sell pictures cheaper than any other Gallery on this coast. Has the process for taking the new and beautiful style picture called the Porcelain or Sun Pearl, so much talked of in San Francisco, also has engaged a man from that place who has been making those pictures in San Francisco.

Mr. H. is now prepared to do as good work, and in as great variety of styles as any Gallery in Portland. Orders for full portrait size of photograph will be promptly attended to. ap16dlptf

HOW NATURAL, AND YET HOW AGREEABLE it is to enjoy the comforts of a good bed to rest his or her weary limbs upon, and I can say from experience that there is no style of bed that compares with the MOULTON SPRING BED BOTTOM, BROMLEY'S PATENT, for Health and Comfort, Durability and Cheapness; can be attached to any bedstead and does not get out of order. The model of this bed bottom can be seen at HENDEE'S PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY, and orders taken for all that may wish to purchase. Also, the full size bed in working order can be seen and had on short notice at Mr. Wilcox's Furniture Store, on Front street, near the bridge. Price—Double-Bed, $10; Single-Bed, $7.

Mr. Hendee will take by his New Invention Head Pictures for $3 00 per dozen. Will be at his Rooms from 9 A. M. to 1 P. M. my3dlm

Notice to Contractors.

SEALED PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED AT the office of R. R. Thompson (in Cree's building, adjoining the office of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company) in this city, until Tuesday, the 15th day of May, A. D. 1866, at 2 o'clock P. M. of said day, for improving Front street in said city, between the north line of Pine street and the north line of C street, in time and manner provided by Ordinance No. 327, passed by the Common Council of said city, and approved May 4th, 1866.

Separate proposals will be required—

First—For removing all perishable material &c. from, and grading the street as required in said ordinance.

Second—For furnishing material and constructing the curbing and sidewalks in the manner provided by said ordinance.

Third—For furnishing material and completing the Nicolson pavement on said street as provided in said ordinance.

Contractors will be required to bid so much per square yard for the Nicolson pavement, so much per cubic yard for the grading and so much per running foot for the sidewalks, and to bid separately "on the work of the said improvement" on each half of the street with the share of improvement of intersections which is chargeable to each block of lots abutting thereon.

Specifications and drawings may be seen at the office of C. W. Burrage, City Surveyor.

The committee reserve the right to reject any and all bids deemed unreasonable.

Bond will be required with two or more sureties for the faithful performance of the work. The names of the sureties to accompany the bids.

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step, his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom of an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor.—The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION! IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

Prices Greatly Reduced

LEFFEL'S

American Double Turbine Water Wheel

IS NOW MANUFACTURED BY THE OREGON IRON Works, in the city of Portland, and orders for the same can be filled immediately. We have a small supply of the different sizes, from 10 inches to 48 inches in diameter. That we may know the proper sized wheel you require, measure your water in the following way: Take the width of the stream, the average depth, and the distance it flows in a minute.

All the wheels now in use give universal satisfaction. Both the construction of the wheel and its performance, commend it to the better judgment of all minds capable of appreciating the highest development of mechanical construction. Therefore it has conquerred the most violent opposition.

This wheel is especially adapted to mining purposes. It is light, and can be easily packed into the mountains. Wheels weighing from 100 to 300 pounds will yield from 10 to 40 horse power, under a head of 25 or 30 feet. They are the cheapest wheel to set up known, as they are so arranged as to produce the greatest power possible from the water used.

The prices of these wheels have now been reduced to the ability of all. Come and see them or send for a circular to
